

Expression of Interest for employment at Lindfield Learning Village

Lindfield Learning Village is a new school with an innovative educational model. We would like to hear from those interested in employment at our school. Our intention is to provide you with information about our unique context and a school tour to assist you with your application through jobsNSW. School tours will be offered when recruitment opportunities are available.

If you are interested in casual work, please complete the table and indicate 'casual' in the relevant section.
